A unique village job opportunity

The shop management committee is delighted to announce the creation of a new job role in the shop – Shift Supervisor. Working for two-and-a-half hours a day – Monday to Thursday - this is a paid role involving a wide variety of responsibilities and activities. For full details please go to the shop website at:

We look forward to hearing from you.

Christmas gifts with a difference

If you're already thinking about Christmas and what to buy friends and relatives, you should come along to the village shop to see a unique range of items specially bought in for the occasion. These include handmade craft items, original paintings and homemade produce such as jams and pickles.

We're also making up festive hampers containing local produce like honey for those who want to give something extra special.

And, for the first time, we're looking into the possibility of taking orders for Christmas cakes made by our own expert volunteer artisan cake-making staff.

So if you think you might be interested in ordering one please let Ali or a member of staff know so we can gauge the level of interest.

Preparing for Halloween

If you want cheap and cheerful treats to forestall the young trick or treaters from their nefarious activities on your doorstep on the evening of 31 October, the shop has a very wide range of sweets and other goodies on offer to placate them. There's also a selection of Halloween-related products for your own consumption.
